Message from the CEO

Welcome Community - Naa Marni - Greetings

Firstly, what a brilliant month, I have felt very welcome. I was lucky enough to meet most Aboriginal Sobriety Group Indigenous Corporation (ASG) staff at each of our sites as well as our program managers, who work directly with the front-line staff supporting our clients.

I am very excited for our organisation and its future. The Executive Leadership Team (ELT) are doing a great job in bringing me up to speed on all the challenges and opportunities that ASG have been facing over the past 12 months. This also includes our committed Board of Directors who have diligently strengthened the governance of ASG through some tough times.

Over the coming weeks, the ELT and I will be taking some time out to stop, take a breath and think about our vision, values, purpose, operating model and strategic priorities for next year.

We will also be considering what key projects the organisation will need to undertake and focus on in line with our current service agreements. The output of these meetings will then be provided to the Board to make some strategic decisions for the organisation.

In terms of exciting things to come for ASG, we have just recruited a few new faces across the organisation as well as few new faces on the ASG Board of Directors. We will continue to position ourselves strategically for organisational growth into the future.

From what I have seen in my first 6 weeks, I know that we have a wonderful team of people who are committed to our clients and delivering on our purpose... this is what will get us through any challenging times ahead. The resilience of our employees has been outstanding.

Over the coming weeks I'll continue to get out and about meeting the people who make up our 50+ employees across our 6 offices in Adelaide, Woodville, Monarto and Berri.

I am really looking forward to meeting as many people as possible who make the magic happen.

Finally, to our valued partners and referrers, I thank you for your continued support of ASG. For anyone unsure of how to refer a person to us for support, you can find our referral forms on our website www.asg.org.au.

Warm regards,

Allan Sumner
